STRESS-FREE AND SERIOUS ART EDUCATION

Nestled in parkland in Recreation Avenue Roseville, Ku-ring-gai Art Centre is your destination for quality art experiences and creative wellbeing.

The Centre offers contemporary and classic art tuition, respecting the traditions of life drawing, oil painting, print work and pottery. It's a place where artists can develop, refine and exhibit their work guided by practicing artists and tutoring mentors.

We welcome new and experienced artists to become part of our creative community.

8-week term courses with day and evening options are available for children, teens, and adults as well as weekend classes, workshops and creative school holiday programs.

Browse the full range of classes at krg.nsw.gov.au/artcentre

Adult students enjoy these benefits

- Free on-site parking
- Discount card for use at selected retailers
- Annual calendar of exhibitions to show and sell your work
- Complementary tea, coffee and biscuits
- Invitations to events and gallery openings

Art to Inspire

GALLERY

Our studios and gallery are housed in a vintage mid-century building and is home to a creative community of hundreds of art loving locals.

We have ever-changing free exhibitions and guided tours, or you can participate in one of many arts and cultural events on our calendar.

Bring a picnic when you visit and enjoy a leisurely lunch in our beautiful surroundings that include sculptural works by artists such as Helen Leete and Stephen King.

Choose a book from our free garden library and lie under a tree while the children enjoy the outdoor playground. However you choose to enjoy the Art Centre, our vibe is relaxed and peaceful.
